

The Tale of Cap'n Bawbosa

Bawbosa was a pirate bold, he sailed o'er the Seven Seas.
In search of fame and piles of loot, he rode the ocean breeze.
But in truth he was a little meek, he lacked a pirates vigour.
When others saw him coming near, they began to snigger.

A pirates life he found quite hard, he really wasn't bad.
Tho' he tried his best, he'd had enough. He was a kindly lad.
He bravely planned a final voyage, to seek for jewels and gold.
A final chance, to prove himself, before he got too old.

Of tides and currents he knew not, he couldn't read a map.
He sailed along the Gaywood River, oh what a silly chap.
He ran aground near Bawsey Woods, his ship became stuck fast
And mislaid all his pirate gear, ship buried to the mast.

Now here's your chance to help our hero recover his lost goods.
Just take a map, follow the clues, you'll find them in the woods.
The arrows red will guide your feet so you won't lose your way.
To gather Bawbosa's missing gear before the end of day.
