

A silver birch has caught my hat, now
carry on, no time to chat.

My sword's stuck
in this tree of oak,
just mind the blade,
that is no joke.

My parrot's found
a perfect perch,
what better than
this silver birch.

Now you've found my pirate chest, head for home and take a rest.

Down the hill to
The Hub Cafe.

My anchors in a silver birch, tis near the
crossroad you must search.

A tree with 3 trunks hides my hook, it's on the right just take a look.

Follow the red arrows in the trees,
to help you walk the trail with ease.
